Of Butler county, as a candidate for the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals from the Second Appellate District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republic n party.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.
We are authorized to announce

E. T. WILLIAMS.
As the Democratic nominee for County Judge of Ohio county. Election, November 6, 1894.

THE candidacy of Judge B. L. D. Duffy for a number of reasons will appeal with great force to the Republicans of Ohio county and he should, as he without doubt will, receive the county's vote in the nominating convention.

ACCORDING to announcement made some weeks ago the Fordsville Star came out on the 16th inst. and it is a bright new little sheet. May its pages ever be as interesting as those of its first issue and its subscription list grow to be as long as its whole-souled editor.

THE Muhlenberger says:
The Todd County Progress fairly hugged itself last week. Every page was crowded with ads. An "ad" in The Progress is said to be a regular rabbit's foot for the man who inserts it and the foreman in that office has to fight advertisers off with a club like the rest of us fellows do collectors.

SNOW fell last Saturday night in the eastern and central part of the State to the depth, in some places, of ten inches. The unusual occurrence is supposed to have been caused by the crystallization of the tears shed by those lovers of the horse who found the times too hard to attend the Kentucky Derby.

WHEN Senator Aldrich said that there would be about 300 amendments to the Wilson Bill offered in the Senate, Senator Turpie arose between drinks long enough to say the Rhode Island Senator had lied. The truth is that there have been already 400 amendments offered. It would seem to be in order now for the Indiana man to publicly swallow his former whisky-soaked effusions.

To steal the butter from a blind man's bread—to plant a grave yard in water melons to avoid the thieves and take a newspaper on credit and then mark it "refused" may be mean and even disreputable, but the man who holds down the job of coming to a Prohibition county to collect a bill for a wholesale whisky firm off of a defunct negro blind tiger is just a little too far down to be reached by the King's English now at our disposal.

WHEN the few cool days came two or three weeks ago some smart editor started the idea on the rounds that it was blackberry winter. But in view of the recent cold wave his statement seems to have gone the way of many other things printed in newspapers. It is but fair to presume that the unfortunate editor in question from last Friday evening until Tuesday was wrapped in his ten-year-old overcoat and never strayed from the office stove save long enough to dodge the unkillable and unfreezable bill collector.

EVEN the Democrats themselves are growing tired of the country's mismanagement of foreign affairs by the present back-boneless Administration. On this question the New-Orleans Times-Democrat makes the following pointed remarks:
But this perpetual backing-down of the United States Government, or scuttling out of one foreign position after another, is not much calculated to increase the already poor opinion that alien nationalities, have of us. A nation is never respected that does not infuse some vigor into its foreign policy; and our foreign policy under the present Administration is about as flabby and limp as it could well be.

ONE of the most useful and most worthy, yet withal one of the most sadly neglected organizations in the county is the Ohio County Medical Society. It is composed of the leading lights of the profession, who originated and for several years have held up the organization against many obstacles. There seems, however, two to be principal causes which work to the detriment of the great success possible to be achieved by such a body. The first, and perhaps the most potent cause is the seeming lack of interest in the matter on the part of those members of the profession who most need the training that active participation in the exercises would insure them. The other drawback lies in the failure of the people to justly appreciate the amount of good which will indirectly flow to them through the successful workings of the society. But the earnest and able men who have maintained the organization should not become discouraged, rather let them make renewed efforts to interest their brethren of the profession in the work and thus ultimately achieve the standard of excellence they have so faithfully labored to establish.

For the special benefit and encouragement of our esteemed bachelor citizens we desire to refer to the man arrested in Indiana last week for plurality of wives. This enterprising man, who, if we are to judge of his picture in the dailies, is by no means handsome, had not less than five wives to his credit and the authorities are looking for more. Now, dear aged male unmarried friends, you who are bowed down under the load of single-couseness and are strangers to the marvelous light and liberty of double blessedness does it not seem reasonable that if this homely scamp from Indiana can get tied up five times you could manage to tie up as much as once? At any rate it is worth one more effort.

A CORRESPONDENT to the Earlington Bee gives Brother Glenn a roasting in the following lively manner:
The Madisonville Hustler, of the 11th inst., in an editorial on Coxey's Army has this to say: "The whole Coxey crowd, from Washington City to the wild West, may be searched, and it is exceedingly doubtful if there in it could be found a Democrat, a prohibitionist, a negro, a confederate soldier, or a professed Christian, of any denomination. That motley aggregation of nondescripts is made up of Republicans, Populists, Anarchists, Socialists and fellows generally who would not do an honest day's work at any price."

Not since the days of the Rebellion has a newspaper, of any respectability whatever, dared to thrust such a malicious and treasonable insult at the Republican Party. Why is it that the editor of a Democratic local paper, one third of whose readers are Republicans, would condescend to tell such an unpardonable and unforgiving lie? No one but an ignorant, a demagogue, or a blatherskite of the lowest down, insignificant, pusillanimous and diabolical type would give utterance to such a baseless, senseless falsehood.

The Hustler, however, is rather to be pitied than blamed for, although it is edited by a man who through some hallucination of the voting population of old Hopkins is School Superintendent and is sometimes by strangers accused of having sense, yet his reputation, such as it is, rests almost wholly upon his acknowledged ability to say mean things, however, vicious and misleading and the above is but a case in point.

Resolutions of the Hartford Baptist Sunday School.

Whereas, It has been the will of our Heavenly Father in His mysterious providence to call from the walks of life to a home above, our friend and Sabbath School worker, Mr. A. B. Crabtree, who on May 15, 1894, was suddenly called to his reward. Be it Resolved, That our Sabbath School has lost one of its most faithful and efficient members and as we meditate on his untimely death, we are indeed made to realize that death is no respecter of person.

Resolved, That in his short life we find much to emulate, and commend his pious life as an example to those who succeed him.

Resolved, That we deeply lament his sad death and tender to the bereaved family in their excessive grief our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Sabbath School, and that a copy be furnished to each of our county papers for publication and a copy be sent to his family as a token that we cherish the memory of their son and brother.

Done by order of the Sabbath School, May 20, 1894.

HARTFORD COLLEGE

Just Closing a Most Successful Year's work—Annual Commencement Exercises Next week.

Next week will witness the Fourteenth Annual Commencement Exercises of Hartford College and Business Institute. Not since its auspicious beginning in September 1880 has the school had such a successful year as has been the one just closing.

Dr. Alexander has surrounded himself with talented young men and women who take great pride in their profession and the result is found in the excellent work done during the year. There seems to be a healthier interest on the part of both teachers and students than ever before and the people of the town in the meantime have been more fully aroused to the true worth and merit of the institution. The Collegiate Department has been presided over during the year by Dr. Alexander himself assisted by Professors Wm. Foster and O. M. Shultz. The Intermediate Department has been in charge of Miss Sallie Coleman; while Miss Katie Coombes has presided over the Primary Department.

As for Dr. Wayland Alexander it is merely a repetition of what everybody knows and has said to say that he is one of the leading educators of the State. Hartford is very fortunate in being able to command talent of such high character.

His two assistants in the Collegiate Department are among the very ablest and most deserving young men in the country. They are both self-made and are typical examples of Kentucky manhood, lofty character and marked ability.

Misses Coleman and Coombes who have charge of the Intermediate and Primary departments, are unexcelled in their spheres. They seem to know precisely how to engage the young mind in wholesome study and thus develop it into higher attainments and greater strength. They are hard workers and next week's exercises will only be one of the many evidences of their capability to lay the foundations of a liberal education broad and deep in the students under their care.

A notice of the College and its efficient corps of teachers would be incomplete without recognizing the brilliant work of that great lover of music, Miss Maggie Nail. She has had charge of Music and the fine work of her students is sufficient evidence of the marked success she has achieved.

Besides the class examinations and program formerly published will be the following:

Wednesday evening, Address to the Societies of the College—Judge L. P. Little, of Owensboro.
Thursday evening—May 31. Oratorical Contest. Speakers—Miss L. Johnson, Hartford; Harvey Pruden, Owensboro; J. R. McAfee, Elkton; J. L. Brown, Rockport.
Friday evening, June 1. Commencement. H. H. Montgomery, Salutator, Elizabetown, Conferring Degrees by Dr. J. E. Pendleton. Miss Ella Cox—Valedictory, Hartford.

Notice.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Hayti will hold Children's Day the third Sunday in June. Everybody is invited to be with us on the occasion. The colored Baptist Sunday School, of Hartford, is invited to be with us and also the Beaver Dam and Hall's Creek Schools and let us have a grand and glorious time. Rev. W. M. Johnson, Pastor. Committee on Children's Day: Sarah Rucker, Idella Johnson, Celestine Chinn.
G. W. NALL, Supt.

Decoration Day.

On Wednesday, May 30, 1894, at 7 a. m. the Hickory Ridge Cornet Band will leave Hartford from the Court House for Shinkle Chapel Church. Escort of comrades in charge of Post flag and flowers will fall in procession. All the friends of this good cause are respectfully invited. Ladies wishing to send flowers, will send them to Dan F. Tracy's store early Wednesday morning where they will be taken in charge by committee. There are ninety-six soldiers' graves in our Post District, which will be decorated with flowers and flags by the committee appointed in different localities. A programme of the day is out and a good time is anticipated.

Com. G. A. R.

Church Notes.

Children's Day services will be conducted at No Creek M. E. Church on the second Sunday in June and a very pleasant time for the little folks is anticipated.
On the first Sunday in June which is the 3d day of the month, Washington M. E. Church will be dedicated. Rev. D. F. Kerr, Presiding Elder, will preach the dedicatory sermon and will be assisted in the exercises by Rev. J. B. Perryman and the former pastors, all of whom are requested to attend. All who feel an interest in the cause of Christ are cordially invited to bring dinner and remain on the grounds the whole day.

On to-morrow at Horse Branch Revs. Jeffrey, Foreman, Martin and Felix will begin a meeting and continue over Tuesday. All are invited to attend.
Rev. D. F. Kerr, Presiding Elder of the Green River District Conference, M. E. Church, will be at Beaver Dam to-day to superintend the raising of a tent preparatory to beginning a protracted meeting on May 31st. The tent is large, commodious and sufficient to accommodate three thousand persons. Rev. Kerr and the popular song evangelist, Mr. Prather, have just closed a revival meeting at Paducah in which there were ninety-three conversions.

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church convenes at Trinity Church at Louisville on September 12.
The Green River District Conference of the M. E. Church convenes at Earlington, Ky., June 28th and continues over July 1.

There is already considerable interest manifested in the coming revival at the Methodist Church, which commences on to-morrow night week, June 2d. An able choir has been organized and trained to make the music for the meeting. Rev. James W. Bingham, who will assist Rev. E. E. Pate is an able preacher and it is hoped much good may be done.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church South in session at Memphis manifested a disposition to some what revolutionize some of the plans of the church work. Among other things it is proposed to take away from the Quarterly Conference the right to license preachers and to give that right to the District Conference, taking also from the churches the right to recommend candidates for the ministry and giving that right to the Quarterly Conference.

A poll of the delegates at the General Conference of the M. E. Church South, in session at Memphis showed one-third for and two-thirds against organic union with the M. E. Church. Bishop Duncan holds the Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church South at Owensboro beginning September 27.

BEAVER DAM.

Rev. Casebeer filled his regular appointment here Sunday and Sunday night, but owing to the inclemency of the weather only a small audience was present.

The play entitled "Danger Signal" rendered by the Rockport Theatrical Club, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church, was highly enjoyed by all who were present.

The farce, "Too Much of a Good Thing," was quite a laughable spectacle.

Mr. K. J. McKenney is in the city.

Mrs. J. H. Nave spent Thursday in the country, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Cecil.

Mrs. John Bir is on the sick list.
A fishing party consisting of Messrs. C. W. Parrott and A. P. Barnard, of Louisville; Mr. J. W. Bishop, of Owensboro; J. P. McKenney, Davage Taylor, John Hudson, Fred Taylor, Tom Parrott and Chas. M. Taylor started Monday afternoon for a week's fishing near Rochester, taking with them a good cook and an extra servant and plenty of necessary articles. Mr. J. H. Nave went down Wednesday and will spend a few days with them.

The election was held Saturday last, pursuant to the order obtained from court a few weeks ago. A majority of four in favor of the anti-tax-payers was the record when the polls were closed at 4 o'clock p. m. A deal of dissatisfaction is prevalent, but just what will be done has not yet been determined. One thing, however, is certain the school is not the wane and our more progressive citizens will see to it that the educational cause does not suffer on the account of this mistake on the part of those who are yet quite blind to their own interests.

Anticipated trouble of the striking miners caused the detention of the local freight here over night, Wednesday night. The railroad company refused to give transportation to strikers who wished to go to Central City to compel miners there to stop work and the strikers in retaliation threatened to derail the train.

SCHOOL NOTES.

School is drawing to a close. The present term expires Friday, June 1. The pupils have worked faithfully and well and the closing exercises promise to be interesting.
Thursday night a program of miscellaneous exercises will be presented chiefly by the little folks of the school.

Friday night the R. E. G.'s will entertain. Their program consists of reminiscences of a two years' sojourn in Italy.

In another column we publish the announcement of Mr. E. T. Williams as the Democratic nominee for County Judge, subject to the will of the people at the election, Tuesday, November 6th. Mr. Williams is a man of high character and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office for which his party has nominated him. During his canvass for the nomination he developed running qualities that render him a very formidable opponent.

That Tired Feeling—Severe Headaches, No Appetite

Six Bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Bring Back New Life.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
"Dear Sir:—Before using Hood's Sarsaparilla I was frequently sick and did not know what was the matter with me. One day I would feel so tired I could hardly stand, the next I would have a severe headache and so on, not knowing what the next day would bring forth. I did not have any appetite and my system was generally run down."
I tried a good many medicines but they did me no good. Having heard a great deal about Hood's Sarsaparilla I decided to try a bottle. I was greatly run down.

I can strongly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured my blood and my system. I am now in good health and feel as well as ever. It has been of great benefit to me as I have regained my appetite and

A Threatened Pricing.

McKENRY, Ky., May 23.—Through some false report circulated late last night, some excitement was aroused early this morning among the miners of Hamilton, William's Mine, and here. It had been reported that some of the miners here would undertake to resume work to-day. This caused about 75 or 100 men to congregate around the entrance to the mine this morning, beginning as early as 4 o'clock a. m. About 6 o'clock a short speech was delivered by the bank boss and by the superintendent of the mines assuring the men that they had no intention of taking out any coal more than was necessary to supply the locomotives. As the Central Coal Company, at Central City, were trying to secure this contract by keeping an abundant supply of coal on hand, it became necessary to run engine coal here in order to hold the contract. Several men from this and adjoining mines boarded a freight train in the evening and went to Central City to consult with the miners and operators there in regard to a total suspension. Everything passed off quietly here and it is hoped there will be no violence used at the Central City mines. A delegation from Hillside, Powderly and Beaver are expected to join the men from this side of the river at or near Central City. The Manufacturing and Machine Company here is preparing several mounds to run off a casting next Saturday.

Base Ball.

Very little interest has as yet been manifested on the part of the Clubs in this county and it is feared that the game will not be held up to its usual standard among the local teams.

The players here show little or no interest in the game and while there is material here for a fairly average team, yet there is no practice whatever and the club promises to be a tail-end in the local contests unless there is an awakening.

Dr. J. H. White has been chosen manager of the local team, very properly, and will do all in his power to build up a strong team.

CRIME'S CARNIVAL.

A Big week for Devilment, More or Less Diabolical.

A Post-office Robbery—A Hayti War—And a Rape Case.

Last Friday night the Hartford Post-office was entered, the safe forced open and about $100 stolen. A hole was drilled in the safe door, the lock forced in, and when once the main door was open the thief or thieves had but little trouble in making way into the various money drawers. The parties must have been experts for everything seemed to have been done in a very systematic manner. When Post-master Griffin went down to open the office Saturday morning he found the floor strewn with postage stamps, money orders and other valuables, which the thief could not well appropriate without detection.

A sledge hammer, brace and other tools were found in the office and it was later learned that Williams Bros. blacksmith shop had been broken into and these articles stolen. No clew whatever was left, so that apprehension of the criminals seems impossible.

Hayti is a great believer in a copious use of printer's ink it seems, and every few weeks something or other somehow turns up that makes a copious application of that article seem absolutely necessary. The latest morsel given to the news-hungry quill-driver is a wild West exhibition of wholesale riot and every last Saturday night. The occasion was the festival given for the benefit of the Hayti Cornet Band. A large supply of double-barreled tangiefoot seems to have gotten mixed up with several of the bucks, and it was not long in producing results. There were various quarrels, rows and mutterings through a considerable time in which several darkies played leading parts, but finally the opposing elements found representation in Frank Collins and Walk Kahn, who were of course each supplied with "a gun." It is said Frank fired first but at any rate the scene soon put on a lurid hue as the two big fellows emptied their six-shooters at each other at short range. Six shots were fired, three on each side, but Walk carried off the honors for marksmanship, and Frank carried off the lead. The former was unhurt but the latter was shot through the shoulder and arm and through the thighs and may not recover. Kahn gave himself up Monday.

A burglar while blowing open the safe in C. C. Montague's store at Delaware last Wednesday morning set fire to the house which was totally destroyed. Loss $12,000; insurance $4,000. Mr. Montague's many friends in this county where he was born and reared will learn with regret of his great misfortune.

It is reported that Pate Baize on last Friday attempted rape on Mrs. Fred Young, living near Warren's Mill in Butler county. The woman however by her cries attracted the attention of some parties who were passing near and the scoundrel fled. He returned however on Sunday and again finding the woman alone accomplished his purpose. He has not been seen or heard of since and it is supposed he has left the country. If he is captured there is but one proper remedy and that is to let the husband shoot him.

Cummins-Pendleton.

The flower laden hand of Hymen is again extended toward Hartford to snatch from the old town another of her cherished models of beauty and womanhood. On Tuesday, June 5th, Mr. Holmes Cummins, of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Tula Pendleton, of this place, will be married at the home of the bride's father, Dr. J. E. Pendleton.

Mr. Cummins is a young man of culture and lofty character and has built up a large insurance business over the South.

Miss Pendleton is recognized not only at home but wherever she is known as a young woman of surpassing beauty and accomplishments. She is one of the finest singers in Western Kentucky, and is possessed of many good qualities that make her eminently worthy to be the wife of the man of her choice.

After the ceremony, which will be witnessed by a few invited friends the bridal party will leave for an extensive bridal tour, including Niagara Falls, New York, Baltimore and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummins will be at home, 216 Rayburn Avenue, Memphis, Tenn., after June 25.

A Rascally Scheme.

[TOLEDO BLADE.]

The House of Representatives last month passed a bill amending the postal laws by raising the rates of postage on certain kinds of periodicals 700 per cent. This bill is believed to be the preliminary step in an effort to raise the postage rates on all newspapers and other periodicals. The scheme is this: to reduce letter postage to 1 cent, and then, on the plea that the Post-Office Department should be made self-supporting, to raise the rates on newspapers, magazines and books. In other words, the real object is to kill off cheap literature for the masses of the people.

Printed petitions are industriously circulated by some one, praying that Congress shall raise the postage rates on all second-class matter from one cent per pound, as it is now, to eight cents. These petitions are sent to business men and firms which have large correspondence, and signatures are requested on the plea that if this raise is made letter postage can be reduced to one cent and they thus save largely on postage bills. The promoters of the movement have also collected a large fund from merchants to push the movement in Congress.

They seek to convey the impression that the Post-Office Department has an enormous deficit every year, caused by the "publishing interests." This is a falsehood. Few people know or consider that the records of the department prove that forty times as much labor and time are required to handle a pound of letters as a pound of newspapers require. The people, especially in rural districts, away from newsdealers, who are the ones who would be the most injured by this change, should at once protest to their Representatives and Senators against the project, which will increase the cost of newspapers to the public. As a contemporary well says, "Newspapers are printed for the public, and the public is entitled to receive them at as low a cost as possible."

G. A. R. Resolutions.

PRESTON MORTON POST, No. 4, G. A. R., HARTFORD, KY.

WHEREAS, God has seen fit to call from among us our dear comrade, John Henry Wright, who was a member of our Post and who enlisted in Co. F, 17th Kentucky Infantry Vols. of the late civil war. Comrade Wright was born in Nelson county, Ky., in 1841 and moved to Ohio county when quite a youth. Comrade Wright was a brave soldier and a devoted Christian. He was a member of the Preston Morton Post, G. A. R., at the time of his death and in good standing.

RESOLVED, That we heard with great sorrow of the death of our dear comrade, who died at his home in Ohio county on the 23d day of April, 1894, and that we will ever endeavor to imitate his Christian character and we humbly tender our profound sympathy to his bereaved wife and children and direct that a copy of these proceedings be delivered to them.

The Saddle Horse.

[AMERICAN FARMER.]

The saddle horse interest is in a state of transition. Much warm discussion is filling the horse papers relative to the merits of the various kinds of riding horses. It certainly looks as if the application of electricity would diminish the use of the horse as an instrument of mere power, making the value of draft animals lower as time moves on. It is also evident that, in spite of hard times the world is growing richer, and this, in turn, creates a larger leisure class. Pleasure-seeking, comfort and luxury are sought by more persons with each year's advance. The pleasure-giving, the mind resting horse in all his forms will be more and more in demand.

Running and trotting horses are readily classified, and we are now seeing a strong effort made to establish a standard-bred saddle horse.

The bob-tailed, hard-trotting horse of English descent, emblematic of the present British style, holds high favor in fashionable circles, and with all whose opinions are gained at second-hand. Southern riders, confessedly the best in America, and perhaps in the world, prefer to ride with close seat. There can be no question as to the appearance of dignity and grace which it possesses above the jumping-jack method of the other style of horsemanship.

Gen. J. B. Castleman, of Louisville, Ky., did much to forward the interests of the gaited saddle horse when he entered his superb mare, Emily, in the contests last year at Madison Square Garden, New York City. The walk of this beautiful animal was simply perfect in action, and she evidently could make five miles an hour with ease.

The famous riding horses have heretofore been almost accidents, but the saddle-horse men now have a standard and a register, and are regularly organized with Gen. J. B. Castleman as President, Col. I. B. Hall, Secretary, and Mr. E. T. Halsey as Treasurer, all residents of Louisville. Thus, those who wish to purchase a true-bred saddle horse can now do so with protection against error and wrong.

Southern Immigration.

[NEW YORK TRIBUNE.]

Immigration to the Southern States has always been checked by the disposition to murder which has been so prevalent among Southern communities, which is not yet extirpated, even if it be materially diminished. It is useless for Southerners or their apologists to deny this, for the fact is so, the testimonies to it crowding and legible on every hand. Emigrants of peaceful type and intention won't go where the cutthroats constitute an "imperium in imperio," enforcing their rule with the bowie-knife and the double-barrelled shotgun, and where the representatives of the highest aristocracy pepper each other with revolvers in courtrooms, in theatres and in the street whenever they have a "little difficulty" or whenever the voice of "honour" calls.

The South wonders why the much desired immigrant won't come. We have told it the reason. Let it pluck the spirit of murder and the murderer himself, though he groan like the pulled-up mandrake, out of its soil, and institute and maintain a civilized social order, as all people who pretend to be civilized must do. If that were brought about their territory would fill up fast enough. Even as it is, the Italians propose to try it experimentally: there is no additional room for them just now in the North or the Argentine States, and the tide of emigration having started from the peninsula, it is not easy to arrest it. They are a peaceful people, and are docile in the main, but with capacities of self-defense and reprisal attested since the days of Lars Parsona and Sextus Tarquinius, and if any immigrant can stand up against the Southern desperado with his shotgun and bowie-knife it is the peninsula bandit with his revolver and stiletto.

Sunken eyes, a pallid complexion, and disfiguring eruptions, indicate that there is something wrong within. Expel the lurking foe to health, by purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Cures Erysipelas, Eczema, Salt-Rheum, Pimples and Blotches.

Is Salt a Fertilizer?

The use of salt for fertilizing purposes is still prevailing to some extent, and especially in such agricultural regions where fertilizers have only recently been introduced and where the principles of artificial manuring are as yet little understood.

It is true that salt occasionally produces upon some crops and upon certain soils a moderate increase of yield, for a season or two, but the apparent benefit is not lasting; on the contrary, such applications leave the soil in an impoverished condition; that is, a continued application of salts is followed by decreasing yields. The effect of common salt is readily explained by the fact that it acts as a solvent upon potash compounds contained in the soil, and potash being plant food, causes an increased yield. Salt in this manner acts as a stimulant and enables the plant to draw from resources already present in the soil at a much quicker rate than would be the case under normal conditions, and instead of increasing fertility, it promotes a rapid exhaustion of the soil, which becomes apparent as soon as the plant food stored therein has been consumed.

Anyone familiar with agricultural chemistry knows that salt does not contain anything that may serve as plant nourishment; it is a simple compound of chlorine and sodium. Chlorine, if anything, is injurious to plants (hence the disastrous effect sometimes observed where salt is used at the time of planting, or in too large quantities), while sodium, though not harmful, cannot by any means assist plant growth; the small quantities needed are always and abundantly present in every soil, and it is not any more advantageous to fertilize with sodium than it would be to use sand silica as a fertilizer.

Now, it has been recently claimed by one evidently not familiar with the simplest agricultural principles, that soda may take the place of potash and he even went so far as to recommend common soda as a fertilizer. How could this be in the face of the fact that ashes of plants usually contain ten times as much potash as soda? It is true that Prof. Wagner demonstrated that plants when over-supplied with sodium, did absorb more of this ingredient than they would have done had the supply been normal, but there is no experiment on record to show that any plant can live and grow without potash. The advised farmer, then, who follows such extravagant theories and tries to feed his crops with soda, will waste his money and shorten his crops.

B. VON HERFF.

"The non advertising man goeth forth at the rising of the sun and lo! no man interfereth. He standeth around all day like a bottle of castor oil, and the people with the shekels come not to his shanty. He advertises not his wares and his face is forgotten upon the face of the earth. Who hath dried apples? Who hath fly-spotted gingham? Who hath calicoes made befo' de wah? Who hath stale baking powders without end? He that knoweth not the printer."—EX.

Plain Facts For Farmers.

[ASHLAND, ORE., TIDINGS.] It is the Saturday night pay-roll of the American workshop that makes high prices for farm products and good times for the farmer. When capital is inactive the workingman is out of a job or working only part of the time and at reduced wages while the times are hard. The workingmen of the United States are the largest consumers and the farmers' best customers. In good times they waste as much as would feed an equal number of people in Belgium, France or Germany—the three countries of Europe where wages are comparatively the lowest. Hence, when the American workingman feels the pinch of want and economy is forced upon him, the man to feel it the most quickly is the American farmer. And yet the American farmer has become imbued with the idea that if he legislates, the workingman and the mechanic out of a job that it will not affect his own prosperity. The following, from the Rural Northwest, tells its story so plainly that even a Talented populist might read and understand it:

The price of butter was one or the last to go down as the result of the hard times, but the drop has come now in almost every part of the United States. At Chicago and New York trade in butter is reported to be practically dead, and Boston reports it in the worst shape ever known. The worst feature of the case is that lowered prices do not seem to bring about any increase in consumption. It is evident that there are a great many people who cannot afford to use butter even if it is cheap. The price of Elgin butter fell to 22 cents the first week in March. The Elgin Dairy Report finds by looking over the records for 15 years that the lowest price at which it sold at this season before was 25 1/2 cents, while the average price for the 15 years was a fraction over 35 cents. The Dairy Report believes that the low price this year was caused by the general business depression.

Masonic Barbecue.

Don't forget the great Masonic Barbecue to be held at the Fair Grounds, June 23, 1894. Hon. L. P. Little, of Owensboro, will deliver a Masonic lecture at 11 o'clock a. m.; also Capt. S. E. Hill and Hon. T. S. Pettit are expected to be present and entertain the audience in the afternoon. Every Masonic Lodge in the county is invited to attend and join in the procession, which is expected to be the largest that ever occurred in Hartford. There will be a fine barbecue dinner and other refreshments to suit the occasion. The proceeds will go to repair the Masonic Hall.

Excelsior School Desk Co., Cincinnati, O.
GENTLEMEN:—Having examined with some care the Maps, Charts, Globes and Blackboard Material which you propose to offer to the schools of this State under the law requiring such illustrative apparatus, I can recommend them as being of good material, good workmanship, and suitable for the use of our teachers. Your plan to sell them in combination, and thus, as you assure me, very materially reduce the price of the whole, is to be commended, and especially so as your outfit is made to cover substantially our whole school course as laid down in Sec. 21 of the School Law. The four classes you have arranged, from which trustees may choose, at specific prices ranging from $25 to $55 for a complete outfit, is a great point in your favor.

These Goods are perfectly reliable and the Company is represented by a home man. Apply to
W. H. BARNES, Local Ag't,
